Getting to Denmark is easy. Denmark is a peninsula in Northern Europe, which means you can go by car or train from any of the North European countries.

By plane: Use Copenhagen Airport (CPH). The Airport is located approximately 10 km from the city centre and the symposium venue. There are flights from many destinations throughout the world to Copenhagen Airport.

Airport shuttle: Bus, train and/or metro services connect the city centre and the airport. Please see <http://www.cph.dk/CPH/UK/MAIN/Parking+and+Transport/> for further information. For further information on destinations and departures, see: <http://www.cph.dk/CPH/UK/MAIN/>.

Car: As in all parts of Denmark, Copenhagen has an efficient road network which allows for easy driving access directly to the city. It is not possible to park at the venue without a valid parking ticket.
